NEW ORLEANS & LOUISIANA LAGNIAPPE

Lagniappe (lan-yap) is grounded in the Louisiana tradition of giving or providing "something extra and unexpected". You will receive an abundance of Lagniappe on this specially-arranged travel experience!

November 11/15, 2010

A Personal Invitation:

Please join me on this specially prepared and personally designed travel experience to the wonderful "sights and sites" of "The Big Easy -- New Orleans" and its nearby areas. It's the perfect of time of year to visit..

Special efforts have been made to include in the price a variety of experiences one can only enjoy in New Orleans. It "will not" be necessary for you to purchase a lot of additional sightseeing (it's already included) and just the right amount of included dining is also featured so that you have the opportunity to enjoy a great variety of New Orleans cuisine.

Special Early Reservation Bonus:

Oak Alley Plantation Tour - Valued at $49 - Reserve Before April! You will experience a bygone era in one of the South's most beautiful settings - Oak Alley Plantation, built in 1839. Marvel at the unbelievable quarter-mile long alley of 28 magnificent Oak trees, each over 250 years old, nestled along the magnificent river. Oak Alley is perhaps the most photographed plantation ever, and has been the setting for numerous movies and television programs. The "genteel" South of days gone by will be relived on this magnificent addition to your travel achievements. Reserve today!

You Will Enjoy These Special Included Items:

- ◆ Welcome to New Orleans Dinner Cruise: On your first evening your hostess will have you as her guests for a very special dining/cruise experience - your "Welcome to New Orleans Dinner Cruise". The beauty and romance of the New Orleans skyline will be presented for your enjoyment aboard the authentic Steamboat NATCHEZ - New Orleans' only authentic Steamboat. You will enjoy casual buffet-style dining and live jazz by the world renowned "Dukes of Dixieland". The Steamboat NATCHEZ decks, engine room, and bars will be open for your viewing and enjoyment.
- ◆ New Orleans Marriott Hotel: Especially selected for its proximity to the activities of the famous "French Quarter" of New Orleans, your "top-of-the-line" home away from home will allow easy access to nearby attractions, and will be a welcoming accommodation each evening. Everyone will enjoy unpacking and packing just one time. New Orleans is a "compact" city and you will appreciate the fact that your hotel is so strategically located to maximize your time and make everything easier for you.
- ◆ The French Quarter: Explore and see such sights as Pirates Alley, St. Louis Cathedral, The Cabildo (site of the Louisiana Purchase signing ceremony), Bourbon Street, historic Jackson Square and old cemeteries.
- ◆ Beignets With Café Au Lait: A memorable highlight will be the time we take to enjoy a stop at Café du Monde in the heart of the French Quarter for café au lait and beignets.
- ◆ The New Orleans Introduction Experience: Our group will enjoy an included guided sightseeing tour, while we travel through 3 centuries of history, legends, and romance. We'll be introduced to the sights and sounds of the world famous French Quarter and historic Jackson Square. We'll walk through historic cemeteries, follow the path of the St. Charles Avenue streetcar, and see the stately mansions and famed Garden District.
- ◆ Preservation Hall: Our group will also enjoy some of the finest jazz music around and learn the history of many music "greats". Together we'll walk Bourbon Street "after dark" (it's perfectly safe) and listen to the sounds of jazz wafting toward the sidewalk. A stop will be made at Preservation Hall to enjoy the music and partake of some local refreshments compliments of your tour hostess.
- ◆ Jazz Brunch at Court of Two Sisters: A visit to New Orleans would not be complete without enjoying the world-famous Jazz Brunch Buffet served in the French Quarter's largest courtyard. Enjoy more than 60 different items from made-to-order omelets and Eggs Benedict to spicy Crawfish Louise, tender roast beef, and Bananas Foster. Coffee, tea, and juice are included. While enjoying brunch we be able relax and sing along with a Jazz Trio.
- ◆ National World War II Museum: The only National World War II

Museum is affiliated with the Smithsonian Institute, and has been designated by Congress as "America's National World War II Museum." Four interactive galleries profile America's role in World War II through exhibits featuring electronic maps, mini-theaters, photomurals, text panels and original artifacts that allow visitors to see a piece of D-Day firsthand. You will enjoy the special "Personal Account" or oral history stations where visitors can hear the stories of veterans and home front workers who participated in the war effort.

- ◆ Jean Lafitte Airboat Swamp Tour: This is another in depth and behind-the-scenes experience we included for you. We'll take a thrilling ride through the swamps and bayous of Louisiana, accessible only by airboat. The captain, a native of the area, offers a colorful history of the Cajun way of life. You'll come face to face with alligators, snakes, and other native creatures while touring their neighborhood. This unforgettable swampland journey is filled to the brim with picture taking opportunities.
- ◆ New Orleans School of Cooking: These special classes are located in a renovated molasses warehouse built in the early 1800s in the heart of the French Quarter. We will learn the basics of Louisiana cooking in a way we'll never forget. We'll find that "fun" is the primary ingredient in the kitchen! Creole/Cajun experts will teach us New Orleans specialties such as Gumbo, Jambalaya, and Pralines, while they season them with history, trivia and tales. All classes typically feature 4 traditional recipes, along with generous samplings of the demonstrated menu items as well as recipes, coffee, iced tea, and Abita beer or Abita root beer.
- ◆ Cruise to Mardi Gras World: Mardi Gras World is the home of Carnival magic. At Mardi Gras World, you can experience all the joy, color, pageantry, and magic that are New Orleans' gift to the world. During our tour, we can watch the renowned master sculptors and artists of Blaine Kern Studios create the towering figures, captivating fantasies, and brilliantly animated floats that make Mardi Gras the greatest party on earth. To give a daytime perspective to the New Orleans waterfront we include a cruise along the mighty Mississippi River on the Creole Queen, a real New Orleans paddle wheeler.
- ◆ Breakfast At Brennan's: It's been said that eating out in New Orleans "is not" something you do before doing something else. Rather, eating out in New Orleans "is" the sum and total reason of one's being out. Recognized the world over for its extremely diverse variety of exceptional foods and eating experiences, New Orleans is truly one of a kind. A culinary phenomenon since 1946, Brennan's in New Orleans has created some of the world's most imaginative dishes, which continue to give great pleasure to millions of discerning customers and visitors to New Orleans. Located in the heart of the French Quarter, Brennan's scrumptious breakfast offers entree items from Crabmeat Omelette topped with Hollandaise Sauce to the nationally popular Eggs Hussarde, a Brennan's original. For a finale Bananas Foster, Brennan's world-famous creation, is the most requested item on the restaurant's menu. You will remember this breakfast experience.
